Hanover, July 27, O. S.

THE King of Prussia, who is perfectly well satisfied with his Reception and Entertainment here, intending to set out To-Morrow Morning on his Return to Berlin, Orders are given for Sets of 50 Horses to be kept ready at the several Stages, as also for a Guard of Horse and Dragoons to re-conduct his Majesty to the Frontiers of his own Dominions. General Gersdorf, the Collonels Dockum and Krocker, M. Engel Counsellour at War and Secretary of the Cabinet, and several other Persons of Distinction, who attended his Majesty hither, went away To-Day. M. Ilgen his Prussian Majesty's Chief Minister, who arrived here the 25th Instant at Night, will attend his Majesty in his Journey. And it is expected, that immediately after his Majesty's Arrival at Berlin, the Queen will set out for this Place; it being advised, that the necessary Preparations for that Purpose are already made. Count Stahrenberg, Ambassadour from his Imperial Majesty, arrived the 25th at Night at Osnabrug in his Way hither from England: His Excellency lay last Night at Dieppenau, and this Evening arrived here, where a House has been hired for him some time. Mr. Wych, the King's Minister to the Hans Towns, having obtained his Majesty's Leave to come to Hanover, arrived here the 24th. The Duke of Holstein Norbourg is come hither, to sollicit his Majesty's Interposition with the Emperour in relation to his Succession to the Principality of Ploen: His Claim is strenuously supported by the King of Denmark.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majesty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a considerable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Person concerned in the said Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by advising or contriving the same, will surrender himself and make a free Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them shall be apprehended and convicted for the same, such Person, whether concerned in the said Felony, or in advising, contriving or being privy thereto, shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement shall have a Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. And if any other Person or Persons shall discover, apprehend, and convict any Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, he or they shall receive the like Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.

TOWNSHEND.

Bath, July 28, 1725.
